The Armstrong County Commissioners recognized AmeriCorps Week 2009 at today's Public Meeting. Since 1994 more than 574,000 men and women across the nation have taken the AmeriCorps pledge to "get things done for America." This year we are privileged to have four AmeriCorps workers in Armstrong County, including Nicole George who is working in the Armstrong County Commissioners' office on an Asset Mapping Project. In 1994 Armstrong County hosted its first AmeriCorps worker when Melanie Costanzo worked at HAVIN. The now Mrs. Dias and her husband, Chris, continue to contribute to the county as business and property owners. During AmeriCorps Week we salute AmeriCorps members and alums and thank all AmeriCorps' community partners in Pennsylvania for making the program possible.
