June 2010, was proclaimed Rivers Month by the Armstrong County Commissioners at today's Public Meeting.

Armstrong County can boast to having portions of the Allegheny, Kiskiminetas and Conemaugh Rivers running directly through its borders. In honor of the nationally celebrated Rivers Month there will be a three day river float, May 13 – 16, 2010, beginning in Blairsville, Indiana County, traveling to Westmoreland County then Armstrong County and ending in Tarentum, Allegheny County.

Mr. Alan Walzak of the Strongland Chamber of Commerce stated that the three day sojourn will celebrate and accentuate the three rivers and promote recreation and tourism. Everyone is invited to participate in the entire event or a portion. The chamber is expecting visitors from across the state, New York and Maine. For more information please contact Mr. Walzak at strongland@windstream.net
