Deputy Warden Mark Campbell was honored by the Armstrong County Commissioners at today's Public Meeting.

Deputy Warden Mark Campbell has served the county for twenty years, transitioning from the old jail located next to the courthouse to the current facility in Rayburn Township. At today's Prison Board meeting he was presented with a plaque to commemorate his career with the county. Warden Hogue and Deputy Warden Campbell attended today's Public Meeting where the Board of Commissioners was able to thank Deputy Warden Campbell and recognize his attributes. The Commissioners detailed the work Deputy Warden Campbell performed to maintain a safe facility that met with the highest state regulations at inspections.

Warden Hogue praised Deputy Warden Campbell for his dedication, stating that he had excellent attendance, arrived early and gave his all to his job duties. Deputy Warden Campbell responded that he enjoyed his duties and his time with his co-workers. Commissioner Scahill described how Deputy Warden Campbell organized a softball team for employees to compete against other counties. The unofficial consensus was the team had a championship record in ten of the twelve seasons it existed. Deputy Warden Campbell will be missed for his positive attitude and friendly nature by all county employees who knew him.
