At the September 1st Public Meeting of the Armstrong County Commissioners a proclamation was signed asking everyone to stop and remember the heroes and victims of September 11th. The Proclamation read as follows:

WHEREAS, In honor of the anniversary of the September 11th attacks, we ask you to STOP AND REMEMBER; and

WHEREAS, At 1:00 p.m. Eastern Daylight Time on September 11th, 2011, all Americans are asked to cease all regular activity for one minute; and

WHEREAS, as bells and sirens ring out, take a moment to honor the victims of the worst terrorist attack on United States soil; and

WHEREAS, governments and businesses, houses of worship and railways, fire and police departments and others are called on to ring bells and sound sirens as we observe this Moment of Remembrance; and

WHEREAS, at the same time across the country 1:00 p.m. Eastern Daylight Time, noon, Central Daylight Time, 11:00 a.m. Mountain Daylight Time and 10:00 a.m. Pacific Daylight Time – we call on you to reflect on the lives lost and those affected by the tragedies of 9/11; and

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT PROCLAIMED that the members of the Armstrong County Board of Commissioners encourage the citizens of this county join their fellow Americans to recognize and remember the tragedy of September 11, 2011 and the lives that were lost or altered by the terroristic acts that day.
