On September 22nd, 2011 at the Public Meeting the Armstrong County Commissioners signed a proclamation adopting September 18 through 24, 2011 as Employ the Older Workers Week. The Board of Commissioners recognized the workforce contributions of older workers, and encouraged employers and workers of all ages to recognize the many ways in which older employees contribute to a successful working environment.

Ms. Debbie Reesman an Older Worker Employment Specialist with the Armstrong County Area Agency on Aging spoke at the meeting. She praised the older workers for the wealth of knowledge and experience they bring to their jobs. Ms. Reesman stated that the workers will be honored at a reception in October that will be attended by elected officials and employers.
