Burrell Township and Manorville Borough this month became the latest Armstrong County municipalities to join the Armstrong Uniform Construction Code (UCC) Group, bringing the total membership to 33 townships and boroughs.

In addition to approving the membership requests of the two municipalities, Armstrong UCC re-elected William Reddinger of Mahoning Township to serve as chairman, Robert Conklin of Kittanning Township as Vice-Chairman and Rich McMillen of Kittanning Borough as Secretary/Treasurer.

The Armstrong UCC Group administers the Uniform Construction Code for its member municipalities. The Group currently contracts with Bureau Veritas, a Third Party Inspection Agency, to conduct inspections. Benefits of members include competitive fees for inspection services, an Appeals Board, and technical support from the County.
