CELEBRATING-IN STYLE-THE BEGINNING OF A NEW ADMINISTRATION, ARMSTRONG COUNTY COMMISSIONERS DAVE BATTAGLIA AND BOB BOWER HOSTED A CATERED LUNCHEON IN THE COURTHOUSE ANNEX JANUARY 13TH. BOB AND DAVE PAID FOR THE SPREAD OUT OF POCKET, SAYING IT WAS THEIR WAY OF INTRODUCING THEMSELVES TO THE COUNTY STAFF, LOCAL MEDIA AND COURT HOUSE REGULARS.

ARMSTRONG County Commissioners Dave Battaglia and Robert Bower flank Lenape Tech Culinary Arts students (left-right) Ashley Good, Ford City; Allison Bowser, NuMine; and Karrah Bush of Apollo during a “Meet the New Commissioners” luncheon last week in the Courthouse Annex. Lenape catered the event, which was paid for by Battaglia and Bower. The culinary class serves lunch to the public every Thursday and Friday at Lenape and students took opportunity to show off their latest menu. Being non-profit, prices are very reasonable students said.

More than 100 county employees, special guests, members of the local news media and a number of the public (who happened to be at the Court House on business) were served a delicious buffet luncheon in the lobby of the Courthouse Annex building. Hot trays of food and platters of fruit and vegetables from the luncheon were donated and delivered to the Armstrong County Health Center for patients and staff to enjoy later that afternoon.
