

How do I find out information about the candidates?

Listen or read what the new media has to report, more important go to the candidate debates or talk to the candidates personally. The Election Bureau will never give out information concerning candidates view points.