

Ombudsman is a Swedish word meaning "citizen advocate". The program assists people to resolve problems with long-term care facilities. We encourage people to try to self-resolve their problems. Sometimes people just have questions and don't know who to ask. Other times we may need to become more actively involved.