

Will Medicare drug plans have preferred drug lists?

---

Yes. A preferred drug list is a special list of drugs that your plan has determined are less costly and as effective as other drugs. The plan's formulary may include preferred drugs, and you may pay less money if you use preferred drugs than other drugs on your drug plan's formulary.