

The seal of Armstrong County, Pennsylvania, is a circular emblem. It features a central shield with a yellow background. On the shield, there is a brown deer standing on a green patch of grass at the top. Below the deer, there is a gear on the left and a plow on the right. At the bottom of the shield, there is a small house and a tree. The shield is surrounded by a green laurel wreath. The entire seal is enclosed in a purple ring with a yellow border. The text "ARMSTRONG COUNTY" is written in yellow capital letters along the top inner edge of the purple ring, and "PENNSYLVANIA" is written along the bottom inner edge. The year "1817" is visible on the right side of the ring.

No results reported.
Please check back
soon!